

Wake me up

I'm Counting stars with you that shine through this summer night I'm Counting stars with you and everything feels allright

No I don't know what you said
No I don't know what you said
No I don't know what you said

We make up stories and I'm so funny I could cry We stop making up stories and just look into the summer sky

I can't remember anything
I can't remember anything
I can't remember anything

Wake me up
I should be living!

Paragliding

Bungee jumping Rotten rope Rope's too long I don't mind

Paragliding
Broken wings
Wings are burning I feel fine

Backyard wrestling Bloody face Broken bottles
Nine inch nails

Cosmyk Blues

It hurts so much to be so lonely It's so sad that you're not here

Everything turns grey because I'm lonely My only friends seem to be whiskey and beer

I don't know what to do I've got the old damn cosmyk blues Because of you

Wonderland

Hey
I've got a ticket to wonderland
And you
Will never know how that feels It's so great to hang around and relax all day
It's so great
To do nothing at all

And there's a million good reasons never to return to my sad old life Coz it's a better way of living no more tears and no more fights

Arriving at the entrance Showing my ticket
The guardian just smiles leads me in and I say: "Wicked!"
It's the best thing I ever saw I'll ever get
Yeah like I said
You are high in the air You are
low in the ground You are hanging around and you are always stoned It's the best thing you'll ever get Boy I tell you
It's the best thing you'll ever get

Hey
And you will never know how I feel It's so great
It's so great
to do nothing at all

Intermission

It all reminds me now

This is the town where I wasted my youth in this street by the light where you told me the truth Where you smiled and said "Hey, it's OK! Don't confuse.
Give me time, give me space. We've got nothing to lose."
Where we laughed, where we sang, held our hands in the snow counted stars in the night, had no reason to grow Where we danced to the songs that I wrote just for you And it all reminds me now

And this is the road that I drove every night with a bag full of beer, through the fields, on my bike to the house where you lived, in a room that you liked till you moved just to see, life is shit it's not bright.
Till you asked for the sense and the meaning of life called your mum every day and your dad every night Till you dreamed of a tent and your memory came back And it all reminds you now

This is the room where I spent all the years fell asleep and woke up, used the chalk to count tears Where you lay in my bed, made me drown, made me spin Where I saw all the clouds and the future within Now it's 2006. I'm alive as you see.
Gave you time, gave you space, carfed a heart in a tree Wrote some songs, counted days, had some drinks, lost the ways Well, it all reminds me now

Tired

No one I suppose will cry in this tree anymore

I am gonna leave and find someone to adore

Tired of living this way There's no reason to stay Killed my body, the emotion and my brain
I guess it was invain

In a day or two I will forget my past

Even if I'll cry I'll keep on running fast

And now it's time I'm climbing down the tree
And all I know is who I want to be The tree escapes inside a burning sun I face the truth and slowly start to run

The truth is that it's better when I'm gone and far away
The truth is there's no reason
or a sense for me to stay The truth is no one cares if I am here or far away
The truth is I'm the only one who's standing in my way

3 Wishes

I tried to reach you by the phone about 15 times today I've got to hear your voice need you to tell me that you're okay

If I had 3 wishes
I would choose you and you and you

Everything is so ridiculous
I could laugh all day
You know nothing can compare to us
And that's not, in a way

If I had 3 wishes
I would choose you and you and you

Town of the living Dead

You'll never know Never you'll know how I break down Please let me go Just let me go and leave this town Coz time time will not change anything No never

I get lost everytime that I'm roaming the streets in the town of the living dead
I never wanted this People come People go I keep roaming the streets
in the town of the living dead

Maybe it's true and no one but you can save my life Keep me away best until may till summer comes And don't don't wake me up till the snow is melting

It was one early summer morning I returned from a party and the bird's were already humming And I looked at the trees as they were dancing in a warm summer breeze And I thought by myself as I walked through the fields Is this city too small or have I grown But I couldn't find the answer
So I fell asleep and inside I'll cry forever

Nothing you could understand

The morning's at my window but I can't get up The drinks last night were heavy and I couldn't really stop to think about the past Coz I saw her and her new friend

I walked across the street when someone called my name I turned around and saw them and I almost went insane and I didn't want to talk But in my mind
I just thought

Please get your eyes off of my bride I'm feeling used I'm feeling tired
It's nothing you could understand Well, I'm so funny I could cry
and Daniel said
"Com'on let us die!"
I'm thinking `bout this opportunity

When both of them had left I made my way back home but I came across the pub and I really felt alone so I stepped into the place and I ordered the first drinks

I sat beside a man he looked like Santa Clause He stared at me and smiled and then he spent me some applause so I raised my glass at him and I called him a bastard

So I drink up to kill the pain and everyday I'll do the same
It's nothing you could understand
Well, I'm so funny I could cry
"Com'on let us die!"
I'm thinking `bout this opportunity

Daughters of Blossom Street

I've seen enough Sensed a loss of me
Never me

I don't feel save Life's my grave

If I'd unwrap these linen full of stains could I see what is true and what remains of me
Never me

Open up the curtains, put on the lights
I wanna see everything that's inside
I wanna see everything
