

Close to the Wolf

And if a smile burns through the night I wonder why it can't be yours

And if I drive drunk through the night I wonder if it's just for you

Oh you should have left me Should have left me home where I belong All my friends have left me Friends have left me
All of them have gone
Now my room is colder Colder than all things I used to know While my heart is freezing I am trying Trying to go on

And if I sit next to a girl I wonder why it can't be you

And if my songs can't reach your ears I wonder if it's you to blame

But if you need a song
I am there (I'll sing aloud) I'll scream and shout I don't care anymore (There is no doubt) And if the sun will hide Behind clouds
It's no reason for me
Not to come around

Theory

I tried so hard to understand this life that's slipping through my hands The reasons why I fell in love and all the times I tried to starve Every yes and every no and every stop and every go The moments full of empathy and all the times I tried to flee And finally I understand
There is no sense
There is no sense

I tried so hard to memorize the latest poem with all its lies I thought that everything would change That I could always rearrange the way I live the way I think the way I die the way I sink I said that I could barely see all of the guns that point at me But if you ask me if we're free
It's theory
It's theory

I gave my best to be myself Locked all the truth inside a shelf I hated everything you liked and every day I tried to hide from all the beasts in all my dreams but nothing's ever as it seems and nothing's ever really bad and nothing's ever really sad So there's no reason to be scared It's either truth or it is dare

Cold Heart

Cold heart
went dark And forgot to restart

All the lovely memories had turned and ran away They changed into a shadow that was supposed to stay

went dark and lost all its sparks

All the lovely people
They changed into a monster

went dark

But cold heart went to the southside to make its mind To forget bout the troubled days in former times
And it seemed as if the sun was no longer on the run Awake
24 hours a day But cold heart was afraid it could change and be rearranged one day So it turned and ran away Searched another place to stay Searched another lonely heart Couldn't manage to restart

Cold pane
Again
All stays the same

Intermission II

Avatar

I called you to make you mine You asked me if I feel fine
If life would be an eye for an eye
I would feel fine

We climbed up to our secret place Where everything's just time and space And someone said it's truth or dare
But we didn't care

As we were starrng at the horizon
And all the grey clouds seemed to swallow down the landscape
We turned around and saw the horizon
And there were only lakes and trees and birds and sunset Blue and green and orange Empathy and knowledge

I asked you what time it was
And you said
"It's much too late"
And somehow I knew you were right
And I felt fine

I watched the sun and it was sinking I shot the moon coz in its pale light I was freezing And my first thought wasn't it thinking I guess it's better to unwind and forget `bout the time that's so damn far behind and only killing mind and making me blind

So I can't see
Where's my love
I can't see
Where's my soul
Save me
I can't see
Lead me
I can't see

The same Mistake

I was travelling on the underground for hours
I was waiting in the pouring rain for weeks Just to prove that I'm the best for you It's the same mistake I always make Well, it's you I want

You let me in to throw me out That's no reason for me not to come around I give you love and you give me hate It's the same with all the birds and all the bees

I was starring at the oceanside
for hours
I've been reading all your stupid books for days
I really thought that I could make you mine Now I kill the pain with beer and wine Still it's you I want

"A number I recall
Is fading in my memory
In everlasting stores
Well, I don't know
I still don't know Why I should plant trees Or where I should go"

You cost me tears and sleepless nights You're the most expensive thing
I can effort
And in the end There'll be no end Coz I will never really stop loving you

Everything is wrong

Everything you know is wrong Please don't change as long as heart and mind and soul will force you to Soon you will forget the past and grow up at last and all the things you owned will fade away

Everything you know is wrong
Everything you had is gone
Everything you know is wrong

Yesterday I dreamed of those who are lost and thought "My gosh! I became one of them today."
Just because you're gone I feel like I'm supposed to be the one who always was and will be lost

Everything you know is wrong
Everything you owned is gone
Everything you know is wrong
Everything is wrong

Peephole Morning

Morning comes crawling through a peephole in the door
All is so full of love I can't take anymore

I see sparks everywhere
In my heart only sparks

And everything you said burned a hole into my head And everything you did was killing my fantasy The only thing that hurts is to know it was in vain Painting in a cave

Dreaming with open eyes but sunlight wakes me up I know it's up to me to go on or to stop

I play chords no one knows
In my heart
only chords

Today We Saved The World

by sliding down the right street
Some rumors woke me up from dreaming in the backseat

Danced and saw you in the crowd while everyone was singing loud I forgot we were just friends and that one day everything ends Kicked and squeeled to make you mine and drowned the pain in seas of wine Cried and screamed to get you back but made you run away instead

By the end of june I will have found some new friends December sings a song and tells me that the year ends

I always thought we can't bleed

And you should leave me
For the sake of my heart And I should come clean but don't know how to start And no letter or a song could explain How I'm stuck
In love and hate
In time and space
In pain and empathy

We are like Rockets

The flowers in the garden have died and turned to stone The shed has changed its color into grey

and some never returned And I don't really think that's gonna change

And all you said was one big lie
The whole world's keeping passing by And I don't know what it's for A quiet, easy living is all I'm looking for Just one more chance to prove that I am good

The people in this village will never understand just one word that is coming out my mouth

And all you said was one big lie
And parents sleep while children cry
And I don't know what to do
